

Exploring the Past Around You

Wednesday February 7, 2018 @ 6:30 p.m.

Rose Township Hall

Lower Level

9080 Mason Street

Holly, MI 48442

The Rose Township Heritage Committee member and Oakland County Parks & Recreation, Project Advisor and Historian Carol Bacak-Egbo will present Exploring the Past Around You.

Learn how to research the history of your house (and land) and the early families who once lived there.

Carol will select a historic home in the township and walk us through how to research land and property records, look up census data, and will show us which resources are free and others requiring fees. We will learn what questions to ask in order to piece together the story of our house and land.

This program is free. Registration is appreciated by emailing Dianne@rosetownship.com or calling Supervisor Dianne Scheib-Snyder at 248-634-6889. Refreshments will be provided.

This program is sponsored by the Rose Township Heritage Committee