PRESENTATIONS – Andy Ziegler, Board of Review member

The board met on 12/9/2025 and reviewed eight petitions and the 2026 inflation rate multiplier of 1.027 (2.7%) as issued by the State Tax Commission and reviewed how taxable values are calculated. Assessment appeal dates and procedures will be included in Notices of Assessment and posted on the township website. Information regarding tax exemptions and hardship applications is available both online (rosetownship.com) and at the township office.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS - None

NEW BUSINESS

1. Discussion of Safety Concerns Related to Truck Traffic

The Board held an extensive discussion regarding potential impacts from increased truck traffic associated with a proposed Springfield Township gravel mine. Topics included safety concerns, road conditions, jurisdictional limitations, enforcement authority.

The Township Attorney provided legal context regarding enforcement authority, truck routes, and relevant provisions of the Michigan Vehicle Code. Board members agreed to continue gathering information and exploring legally permissible options to address safety concerns.

Comments were also heard from members of the audience.

No action was taken.
